FAIR HOUSING WORKSHOPS

May/ June/ July 2025

Quarterly Schedule

Housing Location: Length: 1 hour Virtual

It's a challenge looking for new rental housing, especially if you have limited income, poor credit, or an eviction on your record. During this time, you'll learn how to understand your housing rights, approach potential landlords, overcome barriers to housing, track your search, identify housing options, and MORE!

Fair Housing 101: Length: 1 hour Virtual

Fair Housing Law can be complicated. Attend this session to learn about your rights and responsibilities as a Tenant and Landlord. We'll discuss fair housing law, exemptions to fair housing, emotional support animals, what fair housing violations can look like, and more!

Lease Basics: Length: 1 hour Virtual

Curious about how to read your rental lease? This session will cover the basic structures of a lease, what it should include, and the different aspects of tenancy on the lease (ex. move in, move out, utilities, proper notice, waiver of notice to quiet, and more). As an added benefit, this session will also include a helpful lease review activity.

Renting, What You Should Know: Length: 1 hour Virtual

Want to learn more about your rights and responsibilities as a renter? Join us to discuss the importance of good communication, an overview of your fair housing rights, how to approach potential landlords, overcome barriers to housing, track your search, identify housing options, and MORE!

Rental Advantage Course: Length: 6 hours In Person Upon Request

Register for our FREE Rental Advantage Course to empower yourself with knowledge you can use to navigate the rental application process, learn how to read a lease, know your rental rights, own and discuss your personal history, communicate effectively to maintain a positive landlord-tenant relationship, understand credit and budgeting basics—along with other rental fundamentals, and MORE!
